Our Vision is Simple

Area residents looking for a unique shopping experience travel to downtown South Milwaukee, where they find an eclectic mix of merchants selling fresh fruits and vegetables, baked goods, flowers, art, jewelry and everything in between. They also find a sampling of area restaurants, live entertainment and special events, making the South Milwaukee Downtown Market a true destination for families, foodies and everyone in between.

It's a simple yet ambitious vision – one that we achieved in 2009 and are excited to continue to achieve in 2010 and beyond.

We have history on our side. Long-time residents might remember that the location we've chosen for the South Milwaukee Downtown Market – 11th Avenue south of Milwaukee Avenue – was also home to a popular outdoor market decades ago.

Of course, times have changed since then, and so has downtown South Milwaukee. Despite all the changes, however, one thing remains: opportunity. Our downtown is full of it, and we're hopeful that the South Milwaukee Downtown Market drives awareness and visibility for our city center and everything it has to offer.
